MISS AVA MISSING.

Visits a Church And Disappears.

AFTER THE WAR, AN ELECTION.

Is Ordered in Chili by the Junta.

Officially Recognized by the United States.

Miss Ava Missing.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Miss Ava, a wealthy English woman, who came to Chicago recently to raise the standard of living in slums, is reported to the police as missing. She has been stopping at the residence of Rev. Dr. Bolton. Last evening Miss Ava and Mrs. Bolton drove to the Jesuit Church on the west side. Miss Ava entered the building, telling her companion she only intended having a few minutes conversation with the priest. Mrs. Bolton waited half an hour, and finally became alarmed when Miss Ava did not return. She remembered the missionary had spoken of receiving letters in which her life was threatened, and feared she had come to harm. Mrs. Bolton at once notified the police. Detectives went out and learned from the priest at the church that Miss Ava had called, and after a fifteen minutes conversation about religious matters, had gone away. All attempts to gain any clue to her whereabouts after that time thus far have been fruitless. Miss Ava is said to be very wealthy and devoted her time and money to indulging her hobby for "slumming." Her friends say her crusade against the wrong made her many enemies who threatened her life. She came to Chicago the first of last month to carry on the work which she had acquired fame for doing in London.

Several days ago she purchased a house on the west side. Francis Mingay and family, who have charge of the house, are much mystified at her disappearance. Mr. Mingay said he could not imagine what had become of Miss Ava. When she first came here, he said, she continually complained she was afraid the Catholics would take her life. Tuesday she received a letter and when she read it became excited. Mingay has no idea why she should go to the Catholic church.

Mrs. Dr. Bolton, in an interview, said Miss Ava was received into her husband's congregation (centenary Methodist) on probation about two weeks ago. They were much impressed with her zeal in missionary work and her christian character. Mrs. Bolton said she had accompanied Miss Ava to the Jesuit College a number of times, but there was nothing in the young lady's life to show she was in any way partial to the Catholic religion. Miss Ava never told Mrs. Bolton the object of her visit to the college, and the latter never asked. Mrs. Bolton said that the day Miss Ava disappeared she waited at the college door for fully two hours and a half, and when she did not appear she made inquiry, which was fruitless.

The Searls Will Case.

SALEM (Mass.), Sept. 10.—Those in position to be familiar with the Searls will case say the prospect is good for a compromise before the hearing assigned for two weeks from yesterday. They say the Southern Pacific stock is held together under this will, and that rather than take the risk of breaking up this large block of stock, parties will pay roundly, and that Timothy Hopkins is really the only one who has any case that will bear any sort of judicial examination.

Plate Shipped Her Gun.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—Copenhagen advises bring a report that notwithstanding the strict watch kept upon the movements of the Chilean war vessel, Presidente Pinto, she eluded the vigilance of the authorities and successfully shipped her guns, thus accomplishing the object of her visit.

Temporary Quarters.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Benjamin Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. McKee have engaged apartments at the hotel Abundant, where they will stay until the completion of the improvements in the White House.

After War an Election.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—A Herald Valparaiso dispatch says the Junta, at a meeting held yesterday, decided that an election will be the best method to bring about the tranquility so much desired, and that October 18th next is accordingly designated as election day for Senators, deputies, municipal officers and Presidential electors. The new President will be installed December 16th.

Colonel Stephen, who with twenty-five cavaliers was supposed to have gone to the Argentine Republic to act as guerrillas, has been captured and brought here. His cruelty to anti-Balmacedists who fell into his power has aroused intense feeling against him. He will be very summarily dealt with.

The feeling against the government of the United States and its people is calming down here.

Official recognition of the Junta's government by the United States has been made by both Minister Egan and Admiral Brown.

The United States flag-ship San Francisco yesterday saluted the Chilean flag by a discharge of 21 guns. This was returned in a similar manner by the shore battery.

Union Pacific Wreck.

LINCOLN (Neb.), Sept. 10.—It is reported that a passenger train was wrecked about six miles from Beatrice, Neb., on the Union Pacific, and many persons killed and a large number injured.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 10.—An Omaha special says two passenger trains on the Union Pacific collided near Beatrice, Neb., this morning. Victor R. Haines and George Cortman, both living near Beatrice, had their legs broken and it is thought they will die. Conductor Band sustained serious injuries while jumping. Both of the engines and the mail cars are totally wrecked. The accident is said to have been caused by the carelessness of the train dispatchers.

Meeting Postponed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Trunk Line Traffic Association, which was to have been held to-morrow for a conference on the question of the commissions to be paid by the Transcontinental lines on emigrant business, is indefinitely postponed. Several western lines profess to be unable to attend.

The Labor Movement.

NEW CASTLE, Sept. 10.—A veteran parliamentarian, speaking of the labor movement, said: "If no other good comes out of this labor movement in this country, it will have accomplished an immense task in having made the voice of labor respected and the demands of labor listened to with consideration."

A Mammoth Failure.

LONDON, September 10.—Alexander & Son, corn brokers, have failed. Liabilities, £1,870,000; assets £27,000. They attribute their failure to losses incurred since last May in speculation in grain.

Grain Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Wheat, buyer '91, $1.68 1/2; season, $1.73 1/2.

An Awful Fact.

"It is an awful fact—it is really not short of awful—that in this country, with all its wealth, all its power, 45 per cent.—that is to say, nearly one-half of the persons who reach the age of sixty are or have been paupers." This was a declaration which, in a speech at Newcastle, in May 1889, John Morley made of Great Britain. What would not our calamity politicians give if they could apply it to America.

Death of Mrs. Lewis.

The Carson Tribune of last night says: Mrs. Rachael Lewis, wife of D. J. Lewis, formerly District Attorney of Esmeralda county, died in this city at an early hour this morning. The deceased lady resided in Esmeralda for over twenty years, and was known and respected by nearly every resident of that county. She was a native of Bowdoinham, Maine, and aged 61 years and 6 months.

Distinguished Fall-Bearers.

At the funeral yesterday of the late Judge Sawyer the following were the fall-bearers: Senator Leland Stanford, Lloyd Lewis, H. L. Dodge, A. L. Tubbs, Supreme Judge McFarland, Senator William Stewart of Nevada, President Justice Beatty, D. J. Staples, W. W. Morrow, T. G. Phelps, Judge Myrick, W. K. Vandewater, General W. H. L. Barnes, Judge Hawley of Nevada and General Cobb.

A Broken Ankle.

Miss Lolo Thomas met with a severe accident yesterday afternoon, by which she suffers a broken ankle that will probably prevent her walking upon it for six weeks at least. The accident happened as she was coming out of the University, when her shoe caught in some manner and she was thrown violently down the steps.

POOR PROSPECTS

Effects of Our Tariff.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Chronicle this morning referred to the investigations that have been made by the New York Associated Press to ascertain the effects of the McKinley law in Europe and says: "Thanks to the correspondent of the Associated Press. We now are in position to estimate the effects of the McKinley law upon our trade."

The St. James Gazette, referring to the fact that the Times and other papers published the Associated Press special letter, dated from this city September 1st, and giving a review of the effects of the McKinley tariff bill in Great Britain, says the Associated Press correspondent done his work very thoroughly and that the conclusions he arrived at are not altogether unsatisfactory to England. Continuing the Gazette says: "There is some satisfaction to learn that German industries are injured more than the English. Even under a rigorous protective tariff, workmanship and quality will tell at times."

A Ramshackle Ship.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—When the report was published some days ago that the United States ship Pensacola was unseaworthy, W. H. Beldon of this city, whose son is serving an apprenticeship on that vessel, wrote to him asking for information on the subject. The reply received was as follows: "You say that if the ship is not fit to go to sea the officers would not let her go, but you are mistaken. The officers know she is not seaworthy, but they can't help themselves. The situation is this way: She came here to go out of commission after being only two years out of the Norfolk navy yard. The contractor is here now that was at Norfolk then and he would not condemn his own work after so short a time. The ship is safe enough in fair weather, but if she ever gets a heavy blow I would rather be out of her. When she rolls her spar deck goes from one side to the other and all the seams are open."

Poor Prospects.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 10.—The general impression among merchants here is that the new steamship line under concession to Porch & Co. of Philadelphia will be short lived, as it will probably be unable to stand the competition of the Spanish trans-Atlantic line, which, though now without subsidy, will most surely receive other concessions from the Mexican Government, as it has from the Spanish Government, and this line, with the Ward line, are abundantly able to take care of this trade. All the freight from the western American cities for Mexico comes by rail and but little is received from Philadelphia or Baltimore.

Murder on Ship-Board.

MONTREAL, Sept. 10.—On the arrival of the steamship Fremont yesterday the mutilated body of a woman was found in the hold. There is no doubt the woman was murdered. The authorities have taken the case in hand and have notified the English police. It is stated she came on board at Newcastle with a man.

A Wise Proceeding.

HUTCHINSON (Kas.), Sept. 10.—The preliminary examination of E. E. Wise has been completed and he was bound over to the district court in the sum of $25,000. The Reno County Commissioners have instituted proceedings against the road he was connected with for the appointment of a receiver.

A Congo Murder.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—An official telegram from Congo confirms the report of the murder of Biscarray, the leader of Crampel's main section. The fate of Crampel himself is doubtful.

Serious Charge.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 10.—A commission has been appointed to investigate the charge against Kiamil Pasha of plotting to dethrone the Sultan.

Crop Reports.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Small advances are noted in all grains, buckwheat alone excepted. The average for potatoes is 94.8; for tomatoes, 87.4. The condition of corn is 21 points higher than in September last year. State averages are generally high. A fine yield has been made west of the Mississippi, though in western Texas there is little reduction by drought. It is a crop decidedly above the medium throughout the south as a whole. Many correspondents refer to it as the best in years.

In the Ohio valley corn is heavy in stalk, but somewhat late in earing from cool nights. In some places it has been blown down by heavy winds, yet it is generally very promising. Local droughts mentioned at a few points cause deterioration, without producing very serious loss.

In Indiana and Illinois there was more injury from drought in July and early in August, which has been partially repaired by recent rains. If frost holds off ten days longer nothing but the latest planting can be injured. In Michigan there has been considerable injury from frost in late planted fields. Wisconsin reports damage from frost of Aug. 22 to 28 and in some cases still earlier. Many Minnesota correspondents promise a good crop if the frost holds off, while in valley lands and the more northern sections it has already done considerable damage. There are also reports of injury from frost in the Dakotas. In Iowa and Nebraska the crop is late, and would be injured by frost prior to September 20th, and needs an entire month for the ripening of the late planted areas. In Missouri rains in June, drought in July and heavy rain and wind storms recently are unfavorable to the highest condition. On well cultured and drained areas corn is very heavy. The condition is variable in Kansas, the western districts suffering from drought, while the eastern counties have an abundance of moisture and a heavy crop. The condition of wheat is very high, considering both winter and spring varieties, in soils, latitudes and elevations.

Grain Blockade in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 10.—The Star this afternoon will say in regard to the reported blockade in the movement of wheat in this city, that reports would not have been far from correct had they been printed a week or ten days ago, but coming as they do just now, when the railroads are cleaning up the last bunch of cars left over from last week's rush, it is hard for grain men and agents to be brought to believe that every one does not know the real situation. Last week the roads were caught unawares and for a time cars could not be had fast enough to handle the grain. Extra efforts were made by the lines and the decrease in receipts have combined to clear the yards here. At no time last week was the rush equal to that of the previous year. The real rush has not yet begun. Many predict a blockade when the enormous grain crop of Kansas begins to move in earnest.

Equalization Stands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The County Attorney this afternoon sent Auditor Smiley an opinion in the matter of the Board of Equalization raising San Francisco's assessment. The Auditor had asked whether the raise would apply to the city and county as well as to the State taxes. The attorney replies that there can be but one assessment roll, and that is the roll as finally increased or diminished by the Board of Equalization. It is the duty of the Auditor to make the requisite corrections and compute the taxes payable.

Died in a Manger.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—Henry Taylor, a hostler, was found dead in a stall at the Agricultural Park this morning. He was about 27 years of age, and had been sick for a long time, and death resulted from exposure. Coroner Clark took charge of the remains. The deceased is said to have a brother who is a police officer in Oakland.

Panama Canal Matters.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—In the police search for evidence in connection with the investigation of affairs of the Panama Canal Co., the offices and residences of Bunanvarilla and Eiffel and others of the principal contractors were searched. Many papers were seized, sealed and handed over to the public prosecutors.

Killed by the Express.

GLASGOW, Sept. 10.—An express train to-day dashed into the midst of a gang of track men at work on the line near this city and five of the laborers were killed.

Weather Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Forecast, rains in the mountains.

French Banquet.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—A banquet was given to-day at the Vandœuvre by De Freycinet, President of the Council and Minister of War, to the French Generals who are taking part in the army maneuvers and to the military attaches who are watching them, and was a most brilliant affair. It was apparently selected as the occasion for the French government, through De Freycinet to give utterance to its views upon the peace prospects of Europe. De Freycinet, during the course of his speech, made a special reference to the pacific tendency of France. The leading idea of the maneuver, he said, was to throw light on and give exercise in the duties of Commander-in-Chief. "Nobody," De Freycinet said, now doubts we are stronger or that we shall prove to be such. We know how to maintain that calmness and dignity in days of misfortune which have paved the way to recuperation."

The Prune Crop.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Secretary Le Long, of the State Board of Horticulture, said to-day that while it was somewhat early to speak authoritatively concerning this year's prune crop, a conservative estimate places it at 15,000,000 to 16,000,000 lbs. The shortage as compared with the expected output is due to late rains in some localities and excessive heat in others. Prunes are being contracted for at the rate of 45¢ to 55¢ per pound in bulk. There has been a considerable amount bonded at these figures, but many growers are holding back for better prices. The quality of this year's crop, he stated, was excellent and they should sell in the east at 2 to 3 cents a pound more than imported fruit.

Ticket Agents Abroad.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 10.—Ticket agents and their friends, to the number of 280, left this morning on a special train over the Northern Pacific, for an excursion to Yellowstone Park.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

In order to present to the world what Nevada is capable of doing in an agricultural way, the GAZETTE will arrange anything sent to it, in an attractive manner at the Pavilion during Fair week. Apples and other fruit, grain of all kinds, potatoes of different varieties, vegetables of every description, hay, etc., will be arranged, due credit given, and everything necessary to make an attractive display, carried out. We make this offer in order to enable those who cannot come to the Fair to send something; and again a farmer who cannot afford the time, for instance, of preparing but one box of apples for exhibition would hesitate about putting it in alone, when, if exhibited in a State collection, it would show off to better advantage. Parties sending in any article can rest assured of having it properly entered, and if awarded a premium the same will be forwarded to them as soon as collected. Exhibits are respectfully solicited, not only from the farmers in Nevada, but from those in Lassen, Modoc, Sierra and Plumas counties, California. All who wish to avail themselves of our offer should carefully mark their names on the articles sent and write the GAZETTE that such and such a thing had been sent for exhibition. It will save us lots of trouble by sending the truck for exhibition the week before Fair.

ANYONE intending to make an exhibit of cattle, horses, sheep or other live stock at the coming State Fair will greatly oblige the GAZETTE by sending a full description of each animal they intend to exhibit, what class entered in and any other information that will be of interest to the public. It will assist us greatly in writing up the Fair and avoid mistakes.

THE nomination of J. Sloat Fassett by the Republicans of New York for Governor is a good one. Mr. Fassett is a son-in-law of Mrs. E. B. Crocker and is well endowed with this world's goods, and he has ability of no mean order. He is a young man in whom the people can place implicit trust. Mr. Fassett is a cousin of Mrs. C. T. Bender of Reno. The remainder of the ticket is as follows: Lieutenant Governor, Hon. John Vrooman of Herkimer; Secretary of State, Eugene F. O'Connor of Brooklyn; Comptroller, Arthur C. Wade of Jamestown; State Treasurer, Ira M. Nedges of Rockland county; Attorney General, Wm. E. Sutherland of Monroe.

It is stated that next week the United States District Attorney will move to nolle pro, the case of the Itata. That would probably be the easiest way out of the business, as the vessel belongs to a private company and the Chilian revolutionists are the Government now. It should, however, be made clear that we did no more nor less than our full duty as neutrals in this case, and have no apologies to make to any one.

DR. PHILLIPS BROOKS says that growing old gracefully may be classed among the beauties as follows: Blessed is the old man who has the fire of 20 and the peace of seventy dwelling harmoniously in his soul. That's the very truest word, but have you ever met him yet? The 70 idea of the fire of 20 don't take with the boy's very well.

THE Paris Temps recognizes the German removal of the prohibition of American pork as a triumph for the Republican party. Our Mugwumps and Free-traders also recognize it, but cannot afford to admit it. Testimony is coming in from all parts of the world to prove that they are stultifying themselves.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS WROTE.

Struggles of an Enterprising Frenchman with Our Native Tongue.
The joyous Portuguese writer who rendered a lasting service to the gaiety of nations in his learned essay on "English as She Is Spoke," probably derived his knowledge of our language through the complicated media of a Portuguese-French and a French-English dictionary, and the latter we suspect to have been the same one employed by the compiler of Baschet's "Catalogue Illustré" of the Paris salon. This really interesting work not only gives a more or less entertaining impression of a large number of paintings reproduced in wood cuts, says the New York Times, but in its English rendering of the French titles it gives a delightful notion of some French conceptions of our own intricate and baffling tongue.

When the translator sought the English for "Une Bagarre—Des Beufs Italiens," the title to a picture representing a stampede of Italian cattle, he hit upon the simple phrase: "A Squabble." He came across "Jean, Mon Porte-Carnier" attached to the picture of a bright young game carrier, following a sportsman who has evidently, from the appearance of the well-filled sack over the boy's shoulder, had very good luck, and he rendered the title: "John, My Game Bag." When M. Berthelot paints a sea after the storm and styles it: "Mer Demontee" the translator gives us: "An Outrageous Sea," the genesis of which quite eludes us. A still life with a red chalk sketch against some books and an old metal urn has its title: "Une Sanguine" plumply turned into: "A Sanguine." With a touch of unexpected familiarity with early English "Printemps Fleuri" becomes "Bloomy Spring." A group of iron-clads streaming on their way "Escadre en Marche" is described with more accuracy than clearance as "Squadron on Route." A soldier exercising a horse from the military breeding farm "Promenade au Haras" is: "Walk in the Grazing Grounds," which is as ingenious a combination of misconceptions as we have run across, unless we accept the translation of "La voie lactée," a decorative design for a ceiling in which lightly-draped forms swarm through the "star dust." This, our gifted friend informs us, is the French conception of "Milk Street."

EARLY TRACES OF MAN.

He Existed in Denmark and Scandinavia Seven Thousand Years Ago.
When was man first placed on earth? No one can answer that question. Hugh Miller says that man's habit of burying his dead out of sight makes it very easy to be mistaken on that point; for, because of burial, men's bones may be found among the animals that have lain in the earth for ages. There is one thing, however, that gives us an inkling of when he came. Certain tools, that only man could have made, have been found buried in caves, in peat beds, and in the bottom of lakes. Often these are covered by layers of rock; and, by calculating how long it took to make the layers, a guess can be made as to when the tools were put there. Still, it is only a guess, and no one pretends to regard the question as settled, because under some conditions the layers would be made much faster than under others. But the bones of certain animals, the mammoth and other great creatures of that time, which have long since died, have been found with these tools, writes Theresa Crofton in St. Nicholas. By calculating in what ages these animals lived, and how long it takes a race of animals to die out, a surer result can be arrived at. In a cave in England, buried under a limestone layer from one to fifteen inches thick, tools have been found mingled with the bones of elephants, tigers, rhinoceroses and hyenas, which roamed over that country thousands and thousands of years ago. The great bones of what is now Denmark and Scandinavia are filled with stone tools. Some have been found in beds of gravel, underlying peat which is certainly seven thousand years old. This seems to show that man must have dwelt on earth at least as many years ago.

A Queer Fol.

The Biddleford (Me.) Journal has found a Saco lady who has a very odd pet in a big garden toad which has for three years yessed his existence in the lady's front yard. No dog ever knew his master or mistress better than this toad does the lady of the house. When she puts in appearance the toad invariably comes out from under the step to greet her and blinks wisely and attentively as she talks to him, but should any other person or voice intrude upon the scene, Mr. Toad quickly retreats to his abode under the steps. During one of the hot days the lady went out into the yard to water her plants and the toad promptly appeared, wearing an unmistakably oppressed aspect. It seemed to the lady that he was begging for a shower bath and she gave him one. She says that the toad actually smiled his gratitude to her and sang contentedly until she left him. Upon warm days since the toad has come in as regularly for his shower bath as the plants have for their sprinkling.

The World's Fair City.

It is said on good authority that there appeared recently in a newspaper of Nantes, France, the following description of Chicago: "It is situated at the foot of the falls it Niagara and receives the waters of the great lakes. In no part of Europe will you find so great a city. Its boulevards are regular and as straight as its streets, which seem to have been ruled with a straight edge and in it all railroads have termini. One is almost frightened by the height of buildings, in which all styles of architecture meet without confusion. About sixteen years ago we first visited the falls of Niagara and our first step was naturally at Chicago. Excellent hotels, very attractive people were there, and as we took a rapid walk along the banks of the 'father of waters' we were obliged continually to avoid meeting the descendants of the company of St. Anthony (pigs). Now these noisy animals have their own quarter, where they are sold, and they no longer by their squeals disturb the public peace."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Women.

The common afflictions of women are sick-head-aches, indigestion and nervous troubles. They arise largely from stomach disorders. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation, you can see why it is more effective than any other Sarsaparilla in these troubles. It is daily relieving hundreds. The action is mild, direct and effective. We have scores of letters from grateful women.

THE HAY TRADE.

Its Remarkable Growth in San Francisco.

The San Francisco Report contains the following interesting item: The growth of the hay business in this city has been remarkable. It is estimated that it is now five times as large as it was ten years ago, and several firms report that their trade has almost doubled during the past year. When the cable railroads began to supplant the horse cars freely in this city it was feared that the consumption of hay would largely fall off. But the rapid growth of the city, caused by the cable lines and the extensive grading and building operations necessitating the employment of thousands of horses, have more than made up any loss from that source. The supply of hay at this port comes from many localities. It is drawn from points around the bay, from the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, from coastwise ports and from the far interior. It is even necessary to import hay from greater distances. Large shipments are drawn from Nevada. Most of these shipments come from Reno and the surrounding country. During the month of August 100 carloads of Nevada hay were sent here from Reno. Although it appears strange to people not in the trade, we are importing hay by the cargo from Washington and other points up north—chiefly Timothy hay.

Not only is the local consumption large, but the exportation of hay by sea from San Francisco is assuming greater proportions. The Hawaiian islands take large quantities from us. Not long ago large consignments were sent to Chili. The consumption of hay in the local market has been increased by the comparatively high prices ruling for barley, oats and other feed grains during the last few years. The production of hay in this State has about kept pace with the demand, but owing to the needs of the producers themselves, the occasional destruction of stored hay and growing crops by fire, the damage by rain and flood, and the steady conversion of hay-producing lands into fruit orchards and vineyards, there is no large accumulation. Good prices have been obtained for this year and were it not for the excessive freight charges of the Southern Pacific Railroad monopoly, the profits of the trade would be larger. The farmers are not only out of pocket from making free shipments to market on account of the lack of cars, the parsimonious Southern Pacific not having enough to move the crop from certain points.

A good yield of wheat hay is about two tons per acre. That article of hay is now quoted in the trade in this market at $12@14 per ton, according to quality. Barley hay is quotable at $10@12, wild oat $11@12 50, tame oat $11@12 50, wheat and oat $11@13 50, alfalfa $9 50@11 50, clover $11 50@13 50 and stock at $9 50@11 50 per ton.

NEVADA POLITICS.

What the "Gazette" Thinks May Happen Next Campaign.

Senator Wm. M. Stewart has returned to the coast and is looking after his fences to see that they are all up and in good repair for fear that some breachy animal will jump into the pasture with a view of eating the Senatorial grass. Some of those "knowing ones" say that the Hon. A. C. Cleveland of White Pine will cross swords with the Old Roman. It is also rumored that John W. Mackay, to satisfy his wife's ambition, would like the honor, but the GAZETTE does not take much stock in the report, but there can be no doubt but John would give William a hard rub if he should conclude to want to go to Washington for six years. State Senator Evan Williams is also a "dark horse" and said to be in the hands of his friends, but cares nothing for the place personally. It probably all depends on his friend Senator John P. Jones, who, it is said, does not like Senator Stewart. Perhaps it is not fair for the GAZETTE to give these family secrets away, but it is common talk among the rank and file, and that is our excuse. State Senator M. D. Foley, like Barkis, is "always willing" and it won't take a ten-mile team to yank him into the fight if he sees one chance in a thousand of winning. C. C. Powning is standing around the boiling caldron, ready to sacrifice himself on the altar of freedom, but it is said that he will be satisfied with Congress and that C. C. Wallace, said to be the C. P. Boss of Nevada politics, has already pledged the support of that gigantic corporation to Powning if "everything works right." Boss Wallace has not yet said what he proposes to do with Francis G. Newlands, who has already declared himself a candidate for the lower house. Bartine, it is said, will be satisfied with a judicial position—the Supreme Court, for instance, to succeed Belknap—if the so-called bosses gives him encouragement. At all events, Nevada will be a bloody field after the dead and dying are piled up, but those best posted think that Stewart will have no opposition to amount to anything—that is, Stewart thinks so. Newlands is expected home some time the latter part of the month, when the chips may fly, but where no man can tell.

TURN OUT THE LIGHT.

A Ledger Thought He Must Set It Out in the Hall.

A few nights since a Lovelock gentleman stopping at the Riverside observed when he went to retire a card which read: "Turn out the Light." A half hour afterward he came down to the bar, and after taking a drink, asked Clerk Sandlin to please come up to his room and help him put that light out. He couldn't blow it out and the wire it hung on wasn't long enough to enable him to put it out either the door or the window, and he couldn't sleep with greased lightning burning out his eyes.

POSTOFFICE HOURS.

On and after Wednesday, September 10th, the delivery window at the Reno, Nevada, postoffice will be open from 8 o'clock a. m. until 6 o'clock p. m. H. P. KRAUS, Postmaster.

THE LIGHTNING MAIL.

The Pacific Crossing in Ten Days and the United States in Three Days.

The mail from China and Japan, which left Yokohama August 19, was safely delivered on the steamship City of New York on time, and so far was a complete success. But according to the telegrams of yesterday the experiment failed at the last station by the blundering British mail officials in striking contrast with the "certainty, celerity and security" called for in our mail contracts and executed by our postal officials on this occasion, as shown by the following account: The details are as interesting as those of Sheridan's ride.

On August 29 the Empress of Japan arrived in Victoria, British Columbia. Here a special train furnished by the Canadian Pacific took the mail bags, eighteen in number, twelve for England and six for New York, and started on a record-breaking ride across the continent. Assistant Superintendent Bradley, Tuesday, went up to Brockville, just across the St. Lawrence, on the Canadian side. Morristown, New York, is just across the river on our side, and Superintendent Voorhees, of the New York Central Railroad, had arranged to have a special train, composed of one baggage car, coach and engine, ready at Morristown to bring the mails to New York city. Superintendent Jackson, of the Railway Mail Service, had arranged for two trucks to be at the Grand Central depot to meet the special and transfer the mail bags to the steamer, lying at her dock in the North River.

She was to sail at 5 o'clock in the morning. Could connection be made? At noon Tuesday Mr. Bradley telegraphed from Brockville to his chief that the Canadian Pacific special was 400 miles away, at Carleton Place, and two hours late. At 2:15 p. m. another telegram was received, saying that the train was then but 300 miles away. Every second was now valuable! At 6:18 the special passed Chalk river, 143 miles from Brockville, at fifty-five miles an hour. At 8 o'clock the special made her last stop before reaching Brockville. She had made the previous seventy-four miles in ninety-three minutes, including 12 minutes for stop. The last thirteen miles had been covered in eleven minutes.

Down she came with a dash the remaining sixty-one miles to Brockville, and arrived at the depot, panting and puffing, having crossed the continent in three days. She arrived at Brockville at 9:20. The mail bags were at once hauled out, taken across the ferry, and put on the special provided by the Grand Central people at Morristown. At 9:45 the train started, and came through with a bang to New York, arriving there at 4:45.

From Utica to Albany, 95 miles, was made in ninety minutes; from Utica to Hoffman's Ferry, 8½ miles, in 61 minutes; from Poughkeepsie to Cold Spring, 21 miles, in 20 minutes; from Groton to Yonkers, 19 miles, in 16 minutes. Quicker than a flash of lightning, Assistant Superintendent Bradley, who had come on the special, had the twelve foreign mail bags dumped into the truck, and, jumping in, had the driver start for New York, a breakneck speed through the streets. Away they went! The horses were equal to the emergency, and a few minutes after five o'clock the dock was reached. The ship was to have started at 6 o'clock. At 5:10 the mails were aboard, the gangplank withdrawn, the engines started, and the experiment was a grand success.

A FINE PAPER.

The "Gazette" Will Make an Extra Effort Fair Week to Get Up a Splendid Paper.

The GAZETTE will issue 2,000 extra copies a day during the Fair, making it the best advertising medium on that occasion on the coast. The GAZETTE will contain full proceedings every day, the program, published in an attractive form, for the following day's races, and all the news of the day besides. It will be a paper that anybody can read and get all the news. Besides containing the general news of the day it will publish interesting cuts every day during the week of local and State interest, making it a paper to be sought after by everybody.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENT.

In Lander county on last Monday the Board of Equalization took action in the matter of the assessment of the C. P. R. R. The petition of the C. P. R. asked that the main track be reduced to $10,000 and the side track to $5,000 per mile. After due consideration the Board refused to reduce the assessment, as asked by the company in its petition, and ordered that said assessment remain as assessed by the assessor, which is $20,000 per mile on the main track and the side track at $10,000 per mile.

Freeman It Before Leaving Home. Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 20th of last May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of cholera. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle of which he immediately cured himself. For sale by J. H. McCallister.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

MRS. GRAHAM'S

Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream.

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles, and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives a most youthful appearance to every lady, old or young, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00 at all druggists and hairdressers. At Mrs. Graham's establishment, at 103 Post street, San Francisco, California, treatise ladies and all members of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book, "How to be Beautiful."

GAVE HIM A SHAVE.

How a Kind Barber Helped a Drunken Tramp to Brace Up.

"Does, can you give me a shave this morning? I just blew in from Boston, and the man who can beat his way from the Hub to Pittsburgh deserves something."

"This is how a clever tramp startled the barbers in a downtown shop some time ago, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. He was not more than thirty-five years old and apparently recovering from a spree."

"You don't lack for gall," replied the owner. "I think you are as able to work as I am."

"I know I am; I am a tailor by trade, but I will get drunk, I can't help it; it is a disease with me, and I try hard to keep away from liquor. Won't you give me a shave? You will not lose anything if you do."

"I've seen good-for-nothing fellows like you before," answered the barber. "You had better get a move on, cap."

"Don't be so hard on me," he persisted. "If I had a clean face I would be more presentable, and would stand a better chance of getting a job."

"I'll scrape your face," spoke up one of the men, "and trust you for the time."

"Thank you," he exclaimed with a smile. The job was soon done and the tramp left. In the afternoon he called pretty well sobered up and said he was going to work in the morning. The next night he paid for the shave and since then he has been doing well at his trade. He is now a regular customer of his barber friend, and he declares he will never drink another drop. The barber and tramp have become boon companions and the former thinks the latter will hold out.

PARIS BEGGARS.

One of Them Who Was the Owner of a Large Fortune.

The professional beggars in Paris, who stand at church doors, on the bridges, or other good corners, of the French capital, are very often richer than most of those of whom they implore charity. It is no uncommon thing to hear of important sums of money being found at the lodgings of deceased mendicants. Till their death they generally try to keep their secret, but a beggar who was for many years known as Pere Antoine, and who used to stand on the steps of the church of St. Sulpice, seemed to like to boast of his wealth. Not long ago he, in a moment of temporary insanity brought on by illness, thrust himself out of a window and was killed on the spot. A man named Guillemin, to whom he had promised to leave his fortune in consideration of being provided for in his old age, at once appropriated the money, amounting to about ninety-three thousand francs. Cunnning Pere Antoine had, however, made a will leaving all his worldly goods to his nephew and cousin. Guillemin restored seventy-six thousand francs, but has been condemned to two years' imprisonment because he kept the remaining twenty thousand.

A BRIDE'S FINE DELICACY.

Her Method of Putting a Stop to a Serenade.

In the good old city which has been immortalized in story as Rivermouth, it chanced, says the Boston Courier, that a couple who did not move in the most exalted social circles and from whom the most refined sentiments might not have been expected were united in the holy bonds of matrimony upon the day which followed the funeral of the first wife of the groom.

The conventional sense of propriety in the neighborhood was shocked by this haste in furnishing for the marriage table with the funeral baked meats, and upon the night of the wedding a company of sons of Belial gathered themselves together and went to serenade the bridal pair with horrid uproar of horns and pans and gongs.

The chirviari was at its height, and all the region was aroused by the hideous noise, when the bride appeared durkly at the window above the riotous crowd, and with supreme feeling appealed to their delicacy.

"Ain't you ashamed," she cried in hot indignation, "to come here, making a disturbance like this when we had a funeral only yesterday?"

THE AMERICAN GIRL.

No Longer the Courageous Creature That She Was.

The American girl of a decade ago has effaced herself, says Charles Dudley Warner in Harper's Magazine. She is no longer the daring, courageous creature. In England, in France, in Germany, in Italy, she takes, as one may say, the color of the land. The satirist will find no more abroad the American girl of the type whom he continues to describe. The knowing and fascinating creature has changed her tactics altogether, and the change has reneted on American society. The mother has come once more to the front, and over the girl has been laid a forty-five year old's census taker. She has again the position and the privileges of the blooming woman of thirty. Her daughters walk meekly and with downcast (if still expectant) eyes and wait for a sign. *** It is enough now to notice that a change is going on, due to the effect of foreign society upon American women, and to express the patriotic belief that whatever forms of etiquette she may bow to the American girl will still be on earth the last and best gift of God to man.

When Life Is Exhausted.

The French Academy of Sciences ten or fifteen years ago offered a prize of one thousand six hundred pounds for the discovery of some means by which even the inexperienced might at once determine whether in a given case death had ensued or not. A physician obtained the prize for having discovered the following well-known phenomenon. If the hand of the suspected dead person is held toward a candle or other artificial light with the fingers extended and one touching the other, and one looks through the spaces between the fingers toward the light, there appears a scarlet red color where the fingers touch each other, due to the blood still circulating, it showing itself through the tissues which have not congested. When life is entirely extinct the phenomenon of scarlet space between the fingers at once ceases. The most extensive and thorough trials established the truth of this observation.

DRESSES OF PURE GOLD.

The Costumes of Sumatra. Women Discount Those of the Civilized Heires.

I have seen women of Sumatra wearing dresses of pure gold and others wearing silver gowns, says a writer in the New York Sun. Both these metals are mined there in Sumatra, and the natives possess sufficient knowledge of the arts to smelt and form the ingots into wire.

The weaving of the handsome and costly cloths is quite the principal occupation of both the men and the women.

Now in Christian countries do women dress as extravagantly. I remember that once the chief told me he would have two pretty maidens dress as they would on their marriage.

The two bright-eyed girls were gone some time and came back wearing, one a dress of gold and the other one of silver. They had bracelets one above another from the hands and above their elbows. At the elbows they wore peculiar bracelets, jointed to permit easily moving the joint.

In brief, their arms were armored with precious metal. They had necklaces of gems and other costly ornaments, and the cloth-of-gold and cloth-of-silver dresses were made loosely fitting above the waist and the skirts in flounces.

A SNAKE THAT REASONED.

How He Managed to Get a Frog Out Where He Could Enjoy It.

I lived on what was formerly called Slave island and occupy a frame house which is raised from the ground, says Donald Melotte, a resident of Ceylon, in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The damp condition of the ground makes the island a popular place for snakes and frogs, which penetrate the houses.

One morning while I sat in my room I saw a frog leap through a crack in the floor near a corner in the wall. A second later a cobra snake pushed its head through the crack and caught the frog before it could get away. When the snake tried to withdraw his head the swelling caused by the presence of the frog in his neck rendered the effort unsuccessful.

He disgorged his prey, but held fast to one leg. Three times he swallowed the frog and three times had to give it up. Finally his snakeship appeared to think, and ended by grabbing the frog's leg, dragged it outside and swallowed it for good. I think that was as smart a snake as you could find even in this country.

"August Flower"

"I inherit some tendency to Dyspepsia from my mother. I suffered two years in this way; consulted a number of doctors. They did me no good. I then used Relieved in your August Flower and it was just two days when I felt great relief. I soon got so that I could sleep and eat, and I felt that I was well. That was three years ago, and I am still first-class. I am never without a bottle, and if I feel constipated the least particle a dose or two of August Flower does the work. The beauty of the medicine is, that you can stop the use of it without any bad effects on the system. Constipation While I was sick I felt everything it seemed to me a man could feel. It was of all men most miserable. I can say, in conclusion, that I believe August Flower will cure anyone of indigestion, if taken Life of Misery with judgment. A. M. Weed, 220 Belvedere St., Indianapolis, Ind." jyl11
